Scott Young practices general civil litigation with specialization in the areas of construction, insurance defense, personal injury, premises liability, trucking, and workers' compensation. He also handles matters involving general business transactions, corporate, estate planning, and trusts and estates. Mr. Young practices in the state and federal courts in Georgia.

In addition to his legal practice, Mr. Young is a registered neutral with the Georgia Commission on Dispute Resolution and authorized to mediate and arbitrate disputes in the State of Georgia. He, along with fellow attorneys, Bill Allred and Scott Young, are the founders of BAY Mediation & Arbitration Services, LLC. Messrs. Barrickman, Allred and Young began BAY in 2002, after realizing the need in Georgia for quality dispute resolution services at reasonable rates. BAY currently has thirteen mediators and arbitrators, who specialize in a wide range of legal issues. Mr. Barrickman is a member of The Georgia Academy of Mediators & Arbitrators (GAMA) and The National Academy of Distinguished Neutrals (NADN).

Mr. Young has developed and a conducted in-house seminar for clients on various topics related to his practice and has spoken at continuing legal education seminars for his peers. Mr. Young is a member of the State Bar of Georgia, the American Bar Association, the Georgia Defense Lawyers Association, and the Defense Research Institute. He is also AV® Preeminent™ Peer Review Rated¹ by Martindale-Hubbell Law Directory, the highest rating available for a lawyer by his or her peers.

Mr. Young is a native of Atlanta. He graduated from Marist School in 1981 and earned a bachelor's degree in psychology in 1985 and a master's degree in vocational rehabilitation in 1987, both from the University of Georgia, before graduating from the Georgia State University School of Law in 1991. Before attending law school, Mr. Young worked as a vocational evaluator, job/task analyst, industry consultant, and was an approved rehabilitation supplier with the State Board of Workers' Compensation. He is a certified rehabilitation counselor (CRCC-R) with the Commission on Rehabilitation Counselor Certification.
